Senate.

Washington, August 27.—The resolution heretofore offered by Senator Ingalls calling for copies of the reports and letters and communications on which the commissioner of the general land office based his letter to Burns on the subject of the Maxwell land grant, was taken up and agreed to.

Mr. Mason of Illinois, from the committee on banking and currency, reported back favorably the bill to prevent national banks from becoming members of any association which might defeat the ends of justice. Pending discussion a conference committee on the [illegible] bill was appointed, and Mr. Allison presented a conference report on the sundry civil bill.

The senate bill authorizing citizens of Colorado, Nevada and the territories to fence against trespassers on the public domain for mining and domestic purposes was reported from committees. Calendar.

Stewart presented with his remarks in support of his resolution. The senator sometimes wondered, he said, how Blaine became so popular in the western country. It was owing to two speeches which he made in the senate, one in which he defended the fact that [illegible] on the Pacific coast [illegible] in reorganizing with the Chinese [illegible] favor of the people of Montana when deprived of work by the new constitution of the law passed by Schurz, when secretary of the interior. Blaine then defended them in a speech from which Stewart read extracts.

After a long discussion in which Teller [illegible] on the subject and which he said pro-slavery men [illegible] would be sent to the forests, the senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

House.

The senate then took up the conference report of the committee on the Pacific railroad funding bill, Mr. Morrill and Williams of Iowa continued the remarks begun on Wednesday.

When Wilson concluded his remarks Weaver moved to recommit the report without instructions. Lost.

The senate adjourned.
